

'The Day the Ambulance Arrived' (True Story)

We have Learnt Today...

1. We are alive today only because Allaah has kept us alive.
2. Our fears can only be taken away by Allaah.
3. When we are sick or injured, only Allaah can cure us.
4. Our prayers can only be answered by Allaah.

This Means...

1. Allaah is the One Who gives life and death.
2. Allaah is the One Who gives us security.
3. Allaah is the One Who gives us health.
4. Allaah is the One Who alone deserves to be worshipped.

So Now To Action...

Now that we know these things, we must act upon them. So:

- A) Next time you are sick or injured or feel afraid or worried, or need any help, then pray to Allaah and only to Him.
- B) And when you are happy and well again, continue to thank Allaah.<sup>1</sup>

Find Out More

One of the things we learn from the story is that Allaah is the One Who keeps us alive. But one day Allaah will cause us all to die. There is nothing wrong with that. That's when we enter the next life. How do we prepare for that time?

Find Out More by reading:

'We Are Gong Back to Allaah' (with Discussion and Quiz)

Jump to 'Tawheed 4 Kids'

---

<sup>1</sup> Educators please note: Gratitude to Allaah occurs in the form of sincere and complete obedience to Him in the way He has prescribed. This is actualised by following the purified Sunnah of His final Messenger, sallallahu 'alayhi wa-sallam.